

TWE

Nomination Form

The purpose of the Tribute to Women of Excellence is to honor outstanding women in the Capital Region who devote time and energy to making the organizations and communities with which they are affiliated better places to work and live.

Eligibility Criteria

All nominations will be reviewed by the Tribute to Women of Excellence committee.

- Nominees must have worked for or volunteered with a charitable, civic or human services organization that serves the Capital Region for two years or more.
- Nominees should support and promote the YWCA's vision and principles of economic empowerment and racial justice, courage in spirit and action, breaking barriers, leadership and self-determination, and community responsibility.
- Carolyn L. Smith Legacy Award: given to an exemplary woman whose efforts set a standard for a lifetime commitment to the welfare of women and children in the capital region.
- Karen F. Snider Emerging Leader Award: recognizes the efforts of a woman under the age of 30 on behalf of the community, particularly with regard to mentoring younger girls.
